Sara:

Pursuant to Iowa Code 427.9, the county board of supervisors shall annually send to the Department of Human Services the names of the persons receiving a tax suspension for their annual review to verify the continued eligibility of each name on the list and shall return the list to the board of supervisors.

Please return all the original documentation received from the Department of Human Services to me after Board approval, so I may adjust our records accordingly.

Sincerely,

Meet with Department Heads: Sheriff Kevin Glendening introduced new hires Theresa Tripp, Administrative Assistant and Joshua Fane, Deputy. Jail population is at 86. Public Health Director Christa Poggemiller reported her office remains busy with vaccines. Land Use Administrator Zach James reported the office has a couple subdivisions to be recorded. The Wind and Solar Ordinance needs to be reviewed after budget meetings this week. County Attorney Lisa Schaefer stated her office is busy getting back to trial after the holidays. County Engineer Brian Carter stated Highway 99 Bridge construction should start back up today. The bridge work on 165th Avenue should start soon as well. Maintenance Director Rodney Bliesener reported he has been short staffed due to illness, so he is working hard to get things caught up. Budget Director Cheryl McVey reported budget hearings will begin today. SEIL CDS Director Ken Hyndman gave a SEIL update. Conservation Director Chris Lee reported the ice on the ponds is not as frozen as it has been with the warmer temperatures. Please be cautious anytime during the winter when going on the ice. Conservation held a winter camp at Starr's Cave last week and they had a great turn out. County Treasurer Janelle Nalley-Londquist reported the office is busy. Auditor Sara Doty would like to thank everyone for the support through the transition of Terri retiring. Doty is currently working on getting a new Payroll Deputy hired for the office.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:52 AM.

This Board meeting is recorded. The meeting minutes and audio are posted on the county's website www.dmcounty.com
